

THE VILLAGE OF KEY BISCAYNE PRESENTS
THE 2013-14 WINTER MUSIC CONCERT SERIES

PIANO & STRINGS CONCERT

5:00–7:00 PM

Sunday, September 22nd

Key Biscayne Community Center Free & Open to the Public

The community is invited to enjoy an assortment of classical and some lighter music, including a Gershwin performance by renowned pianist and University of Miami Faculty Member Dr. Paul Posnak accompanied by strings.

A complimentary wine and cheese reception will be served.

The Winter Music Concert Series is a program made possible by the Village Council of Key Biscayne with support from the Key Biscayne Community Foundation. The idea was conceived by Council member Michael Kelly and is led by Committee members: Gloria Kahn, Patricia Woodson, and Amarylli Fridegotto with the help of Todd Hofferberth, Jorge Mora, and Ana Colls. From September to April, there is a monthly concert in the Village of Key Biscayne that showcases the best local musicians with everything from choirs to quartets, orchestras to jazz bands.
