September 24, 2013

The Mayor opened the public hearing. Alan Fein, 525 Allendale Road; Gwen Wuen, 131 Buttonwood Drive; Julie Dick, 151 Crandon Boulevard and Brett Moss, 731 Crandon Boulevard addressed the Council. The Mayor closed the public hearing.

During the First Budget Hearing, Council reviewed and discussed all Departmental Budgets. The remaining three (3) sections of the Proposed FY2013-14 Budget to be reviewed and discussed by Council are: the Transportation, Stormwater and Solid Waste Enterprise Funds.

The Manager addressed the Council regarding the proposed budgets. The following are changes that have been made to the FY2013-14 Budget since the First Budget Hearing on September 11th: 1.) In the Council's budget the Local Relations Representative budget line item was decreased by $23,000 (new total: $12,000); 2.) The Subscriptions and Memberships budget line item was decreased by $2,400 (new total: $6,100); 3.) The Capital Outlay-Equipment budget line item was decreased by $16,700 (new total: $12,000).

The Attorney's budget reflects the following revisions: 1.) An increase of $20,000 to the Labor Relations line item (new total: $100,000); 2.) A decrease of $25,000 to the Land Development line item (new total: $75,000) and a reduction of $15,000 to the Bond Counsel line item (new total: $10,000).

The Parks and Recreation portion of the budget reflects a reduction of $1,000 to the Promotional Events-General line item (new total: $58,600).

The Police Department budget reduced the Rental & Leases line item by $5,000 due to the removal of the Marine Patrol boat dockage costs (new total: $12,775).

A decrease to the Public Works budget Vehicle Fuel line item of $6,000 (new total: $14,000).

In conclusion of the Departmental Budget discussions, the Manager is recommending that the Excess (Revenues)/Expenditures in the amount of $1,787,752 (as seen in the General Fund Budget-Summary page) be transferred to the Capital Improvement Fund to fund future Capital needs.

It was the consensus of Council to move the Key Biscayne Chamber of Commerce line item from the Council's budget to the Manager's budget and also move the Business Tax Revenue line item from the BZP Department's budget to the Manager's budget.

At this time, the proposed FY2014-2018 Capital Improvement Plan was discussed.

The Manager addressed the Council regarding the Five (5) Year Capital Improvements Plan for FY2014-2018. The Operational and Non-Operational projects are separated within each of the eight (8) categories. The Non-Operational projects identified in the applicable categories were prioritized numerically by Staff; one (1) being the most important.

Councilmember London made a motion to eliminate the purchase of a new bus from the CIP Improvement Plan. The motion was seconded by Councilmember Kelly and failed by a 3-4 voice vote. The vote was as follows: Councilmembers Kelly, London and Vice Mayor Lindsay voting Yes. Councilmembers Davey, Holloway, Taintor and Mayor Caplan voting No.

Additional, there is a newly created category entitle, "Capital Projects". This encompasses projects mentioned during the Strategic Planning process. The Manager is recommending that the Council prioritize this list of projects in order to incorporate the necessary projects into the FY2014 Capital Improvement Plan to properly identify and allocate funding.

The amount of total funds needed for the FY2014 CIP is $3,020,666. The funding will be obtained from the General Fund Reservations-Reserved Carry Forward and Working Capital line items.

There was extensive discussion from Council regarding the proposed FY2014-2018 Capital Improvement Plan.

The following projects were added to the CIP: Amphitheatre, K-8, MAST Gym, Library and Strategic Planning for Storms.
