NEW LECTURE SERIES!

JULY 1— Synthesis of the Arts at the Central University of Venezuela / Part 1

Carlos Raul Villanueva designed a space where art and architecture cohabited in harmony in a "Synthesis of Arts." The university boasts an art collection with works by Alexander Calder, Victor Vasarely, Wifredo Lam, Fernand Léger, Jean Arp, Henri Laurens and many others. It was declared a UNESCO World Heritage site.

JULY 8— Synthesis of the Arts at the Central University of Venezuela / Part 2

JULY 15— Synthesis of the Arts at the Central University of Venezuela / Part 3

JULY 22—Artemisia Gentileschi

Artemisia Gentileschi is the most celebrated female painter of the 17th Century. A follower of Caravaggio, she worked in Rome, Florence, Venice, Naples and London. She turned the horrors of her own life, injustice and rape, into brutal paintings that were also a war cry for oppressed women.

JULY 29—Kiki, Queen of Montparnasse

Kiki de Montparnasse flourished in the liberated culture of Paris in the 1920s. During these years, Montparnasse was the center of the Parisian artistic life and Kiki was its Queen and muse. As a lover, model, singer and painter, she helped define the creative era of Montparnasse.
